

10 reasons to switch to Amadeus and empower your business

1 Switch with confidence.

With Amadeus, you'll be up and running in no time. Before, during and after the switch, our dedicated support teams work alongside you to ensure a smooth transition. Personalized training and support means less downtime, so you can work at optimum levels - fast!

2 Make more money.

Amadeus provides industry-leading content and time-saving productivity tools that help you attract new customers, generate more sales, and earn higher commissions.

3 Trust our experts.

A recent customer satisfaction survey for all industry competitors shows that Amadeus has the highest-ranked functional help desk in the travel industry.

4 Sell like a pro.

Our state-of-the-art tools, technology and e-commerce solutions help you create a powerful Web presence, leading to new revenue streams and higher online sales.

5 Offer the best content.

Tap our industry-leading content to sell more travel. We offer the most comprehensive, competitive air fares, so you can give your customers the best deals every time. Sell hotels, cars, cruises, rail and tours, too!

6 Choose a partner who listens.

Amadeus not only understands technology; we understand your business. We listen to your needs and offer tailored solutions that support your business growth.

7 Sell with assurance.

Amadeus offers industry-acclaimed products and services that help you sell the right products to the right customers at the right time. Be confident that the information you provide is fast, accurate and up-to-date - and keeps customers coming back!

8 Train with the best.

Amadeus offers award-winning training options to help you learn, grow, and improve your knowledge and skills. Amadeus e-University® provides online training, virtual sessions, helpful FAQs, blogs, support and more.

9 Tap our innovation.

Amadeus has been focused on travel for more than 25 years, and our award-winning technology is recognized industry-wide. Since 2004, we've invested more than $3.3 billion in R&D to ensure your business benefits from continuous innovation.

10 Let's shape the future of travel together.

As a leading member of the global travel community, Amadeus provides next-generation technologies, solutions and services that empower your business to succeed. In 195 countries on five continents, Amadeus customers trust us to partner together to achieve optimum business results.
